

'Images That Last' Photographic Courses for Spring/Summer 2010

Elisabeth Sephton BA(Hons)

Elisabeth has been a practising photographic and graphic artist for 30 years, working with SLR cameras and colour/black & white films in both print production and publication. She has taught photography at GCSE, BTEC and Adult Education levels. Now adapted to digital imagery, Elisabeth runs a studio-gallery in Deal on the Kent coast.

Digital Photography in Practice

6 week introductory course on Thursday evenings

A 6 week introductory course designed to improve skill and confidence in taking pictures using digital cameras. The course will cover all the important functions and modes of the camera, the art of composition and the role of computers and printers. Much opportunity will be given to taking a wide variety of images including photographing people, landscapes and details (close-ups) of objects.

Six two and a half hour sessions will take place at 'The Studio-Gallery', 4 St George's Passage, in the heart of Deal and 1 or 2 sessions in different outdoor locations during weekends/early mornings (Total of 18 hours). Some sessions may be separated into smaller groups to accommodate those with either SLR or compact cameras. Places limited to 6. Tea/coffee etc will be provided.
